Escape From Total Wreck

All night long, against invading breakers, darkness, rain and October fog, these men rowed in a life-boat and moved only a short distance to where the big Donaldson Canadian service freighter, Salacia, sent up welcome flares promising assistance. Thus they and 20 others were saved from death after their ship, the freighter Calistrator, grounded and broke near where the famous trans-Atlantic airplane, Bremen, landed. No lives were lost, the distressed Capt. T. J. Baker and 21 others having miraculously landed a second life-boat on the rocky shores. Those seen here, W. Wilson, A. Leach, B. Crosswhite and J. Newby, in order, were river first-aid and clothing by the Salacia and were loud in praising their Scottish rescuers commanded by Capt. W. Rennie, who risked his fine big ship and valuable cargo from Great Britain to aid the outbound Calistrator.

Mr. Walter E. Dibble of Calgary has taken over the management of the service department of Coleman Garage Ltd., and expects to move his family here, as soon as he has made satisfactory arrangements for a residence here.

Coleman was well represented at the concert given in the Orpheum theatre, Blairmore, on Tuesday evening by Miss Madeleine Chardon's pupils, assisted by Mrs. Steeves and Mr. Edgar Rhy. The concert was of a high standard and gave great pleasure to all, who were agreeably surprised especially at the performance of the younger pupils, whose proficiency reflects great credit on themselves and their teacher.

MINING MEN MEET AT BLAIRMORE

Last week's meeting of Rocky Mountain branch of the Institute of Mining and Metallurgy was held at the Greenhill Hotel, Blairmore, the following from Coleman being present: Supt. J. A. ## The Menace of Communism

The Sixth International Communist Congress held in Moscow this year declared its avowed policy "to concentrate Communist propaganda on the young people of the world," not on the young people of Russia, or even of Europe, but of the world.

Has that declaration any meaning for Canada? Is it one that the people of Canada need pay any attention to, or in regard to which they should take action?

Communism thrives where there is oppression, injustice, extreme poverty, lack of employment resulting in enforced idleness, and, inevitably arising from these conditions, general discontent. Satan still finds mischief for idle hands to do, and there is nothing quite so mischievous in the world today as Communism and its many pernicious devices.

Communism, therefore, found fertile ground in Russia owing to the centuries old oppressions and injustices of the old Tsarist regime, during which the most abject poverty and ignorance continued among the masses of the people alongside an aristocracy rolling in wealth and indulging in all forms of extravagance and luxury. The added sufferings, sacrifices and horrors of the Great War were all that was necessary to set the country adrift and provide the Communists with the opportunity they had long been awaiting.

In Canada, unlike Russia, there is no oppression of the people; injustice is not tolerated, and has only to be exposed to be remedied; cases of extreme poverty are rare indeed, and, when found, sympathetic governments, organizations and people respond to the call of need; work, as a rule, is available to all who are willing to work, and seasons of unemployment are but temporary and not a general thing; the overwhelming mass of the people are happy and contented. The soil of Canada is, therefore, not fertile ground for cultivation by the Communist agitator.

Nevertheless, Canada is not being ignored by the Communists of Russia in their visionary attempt to grasp world power through the overthrow of all institutions of law and order, all religions, the destruction of present forms of government, and the confiscation of all property and other rights of individuals. The Communist will never be satisfied until he brings about a reign of terror and a condition of chaos in all countries similar to that created by him in Russia and in certain portions of China. Wherever there is trouble, whether political, social or economic, there the Communist sees his opportunity, and in the past Canada has not been free from manifestations of Communist intrigue and activity. And the Moscow authorities stand ever ready to finance and otherwise support all such efforts.

The Communist leaders realize, however, that they cannot make headway with the adult populations of Canada, the United States, and the self-governing Dominions of the British Commonwealth. Hence their openly avowed intention to concentrate their propagandist activities on "the young people of the world."

And therein lies the danger to Canada. If in their youth while their minds are plastic and open to receive impressions, and before their characters are formed, the boys and girls of Canada, or of any country, can be inoculated with the virus of Communist disbelief in God and religion, Communist repudiation of all accepted ideas of morality as merely man-made restrictions on individual liberty, Communist rebellion against all constitutional systems of government and courts of law and justice, and Communist doctrine that there is nothing good but everything that is bad in all countries except Russia where, for the time being, Communism holds the whip hand and wields a lash over everybody who dares to voice even the mildest criticism of its methods,—if, we say, the youth of Canada can be infected with such ideas, then the very foundations of all that we revere and hold dear in Canada today are being very seriously undermined.

Communism is conducting such a campaign in Canada at the present time. The orders of the International Congress, at Moscow, are being carried out to the letter. Communist day schools and Soviet Sunday schools are being conducted, the most pernicious literature for children is being circulated, and every conceivable plan to attract the interest of the children is adopted and followed. In an age when there is a youthful tendency to scoff at religion as old-fashioned, God, the church, and all religion is openly as well as covertly attacked. Modern youth is encouraged to "go the limit" in throwing off the conventions and restraints of the past, and are ridiculed if they hesitate to do so. The sanctity of the home is laughed at, and parental, as well as all other forms of authority repudiated as forms of slavery and a denial of the rights of youth.

The campaign is highly dangerous. It is an insidious campaign, and therein lies its greatest danger because it is so frequently difficult to locate and combat it. But it must be fought and dragged into the open for the ugly thing it is, otherwise grief and sorrow is being prepared for parents and children alike, for the home, the church, and the state.

In setting their faces sternly against this disruptive thing, let the Canadian people see to it that no oppression, no injustice, no suffering through poverty or because of lack of work, is allowed anywhere in the Dominion. Let the churches forget their minor differences in doctrine and in forms of worship, and, instead of fighting each, unite their forces in order that effective warfare may be waged on a system which, if it is not destroyed, will ultimately destroy all churches and all religion, and, in destroying these great bulwarks, destroy also the home and the state, and lead to the damnation of the individual.

Big Demand For Sheep

British Columbia Owners Shipping Thousands To Market

Along with the vastly improved position and prospects of grain farmers, beef cattle men in British Columbia, who held on during lean years, are reaping their reward. Sheep farmers as usual are on velvet—sheep have been a consistently good bet in British Columbia for years, and appear likely to remain so. Heron Bros., with 135 per cent. increase from the lamb crop are shipping between three and four thousand head to market and retaining around one thousand ewe lambs for breeding stock. The demand for sheep is strong and, with more and more farmers getting into the game on a big scale and farmers generally turning their attention to sheep in smaller numbers, the temptation to sell is almost irresistible.

An Oil That Is Famous—Though Canada was not the birthplace of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, it is the home of that famous compound. From here its good name was spread to Central and South America, the West Indies, Australia and New Zealand. That is far ahead enough to attract its excellence, for in all these countries it is on sale and in demand.

Oil Shale and Tar Sands

Vast Resources Located in Maritimes and In Alberta

Canada has vast resources of oil shale and bituminous sands, the former occurring in Maritime Provinces, and the latter in Alberta. These deposits have long been considered as potential sources of products generally obtained from crude petroleum. As a result of recent modifications in refining methods these raw materials may now be seriously considered as sources, to be drawn upon when needed, to help in supplying the rapidly increasing demand for motor fuel.

Canadian Arctic Expedition

Well On The Way To Frozen North, Equipped With Radio

An example of the use of Canadian products by the Canadian Government in important scientific and exploration work comes with a report of the departure from Ottawa of the Canadian Arctic Expedition, organized by the Northwest and Yukon Branch of the Canadian Department of the Interior.

The expedition was under the direction of Major L. T. Burwash, well known Canadian Governmental explorer, who has spent much time in the far North. Press reports this summer indicated that Major Burwash was off on one of his solitary jaunts, but the general Canadian Arctic Expedition, according to information from Toronto, left that city in three parties.

All three parties were equipped with Eveready radio "B" batteries on the sets supplied for the expedition by the Department of Marine and Fisheries. Word has reached headquarters of the Canadian National Carbon Company that all branches of this Department are using Canadian National Carbon Company products.

Reports this summer on Major Burwash's activities indicate he was engaged in exploration of unusual scientific interest which promises to yield also an abundance of romance. He planned a jaunt of 5,000 miles by rail, boat and dog team leading him at the magnetic pole, the trip being planned partly as a hunt for relics of the Arctic expedition of Sir John Franklin which ended in disaster in 1845.

Humor sifting back occasionally from the frozen North has told that one of Franklin's two ships, the Erebus and the Terror, may be sighted in the Arctic Ocean near King William Land or Boothia Peninsula. If the ship can be found, the Canadian Government will be enriched by the recovery of old relics and records believed to be aboard her.

Major Burwash also planned to investigate conditions among the Eskimos north of Mackenzie and Keewatin, and the proposed tractor-trail route from Wagner Bay on the West Coast of Hudson Bay to Cockburn Bay south of King William Land.

One of the primary purposes of the expedition assigned by press reports is to determine the westward shift of the magnetic pole so that mariners' charts may be corrected.

School Of Education

University Of Alberta To Assist Graduates To Enter Teaching Profession

A school of education is being established at the University of Alberta with a view to enabling students desiring to enter the profession of teaching at the end of their university career to do this far more conveniently than has been the case in the past. The university senate and the provincial department of education have arranged for the opening of the school of education during the present session, but the scheme will not be in full effect until next year.

Radio In Canada

The total number of licensed radio stations in operation in the Dominion and on ships registered therein was 216,700 on March 31, 1927.

All Night With Asthma. Everyone knows how attacks of asthma often keep their victims awake the whole night long. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy, which positively does drive away the attacks.

HON. J. MALCOLM TALKS TO BRITAIN OVER TELEPHONE

Ottawa, Ont.—Ten thousand people who thronged the grounds of the Cardiff Empire Exhibition, in Wales, and many thousands more throughout the British Isles, heard Hon. James Malcolm, minister of trade and commerce, speak to them from Ottawa over the transatlantic telephone.

"Simply marvellous reception," the word came back from Cardiff, as soon as the minister had finished his eight minute address. "The best yet."

Mr. Malcolm's office in the parliament buildings was the Ottawa "radio station."

Mr. Malcolm introduced his brief address by expressing the regards of the Canadian people to the people of Wales, and declared that the ideal of empire trade for which the exhibition stands was finding strong and patriotic support in this country. "The minister voiced a word of praise for the empire marketing board. Trade, he said, was not a medium through which the people of the empire became acquainted and through which they learned the difficulties and viewpoints of the various units. To know one's self was essential. To know one's country was a patriotic duty; to know the empire was a great and profitable advantage.

The minister made passing reference to the arrival in Canada of the prime minister from his lengthy sojourn abroad, and expressed Mr. MacKenzie King's thanks for the reception tendered him in Great Britain.

"The question of inter-imperial migration has been much to the fore in recent months," said Mr. Malcolm. "While calling your attention to the speech delivered by our prime minister recently, in London, in the course of which he declared that Canada welcomed British emigrants, may I say that British North America has in recent years been receiving as many British emigrants as are going to all other empire countries.

The return movement is relatively small, indicating that the great bulk of those who come to us are satisfied with their welcome and with the opportunities which Canada affords—opportunities which have never been greater than today. In the year 1922 we received and welcomed 627,000 emigrants; this year we are receiving over 500 every month. If an inter-empire problem exists on the question of migration, may I say for the government and the people of Canada that none are more welcome in this Dominion than the sons and daughters of the British Isles."

The minister concluded with a reference to the Prince of Wales, whom Canada claimed as a "landed proprietor and taxpayer of this Dominion." His Royal Highness was the great ambassador of the empire, representative of all its traditions, common history and common ideals for a United Empire. The Prince of Wales was a joint possession.

Mr. Malcolm closed with a wish that the Cardiff Empire Exhibition might meet with unprecedented success.

Eliminating Crow Pest

Campaign in Saskatchewan This Year Was Highly Successful.

Regina.—The crow and magpie population of the province has been decreased by more than 1,000,000 as a result of the activities of 4,230 contestants for the 1,500 prizes offered by the Provincial Department of Railways, Labor and Industries in the 1928 crow campaign, according to the report in the Public Service monthly issued for last month.

"The success of the competition may be gauged by the results which show that 465,953 legs, and 681,710 eggs were collected. Actually, therefore, the enemy suffered a total loss of 914,662 before hostilities closed, September 1."

Cities May Have Own Aerodrome

London, Eng.—An aerodrome in every city in Britain is the program put forward by the air ministry. Realization of the program depends on the city councils finding the money and therefore it will not be immediate. Manchester and Nottingham have already purchased land for aerodromes and Leeds, Hull and Liverpool are expected soon to follow their example.

Famine Stalks In China

Babies Being Killed On Account Of Lack Of Food

Shanghai, China.—The China international famine relief is being flooded with appeals from the stricken districts, particularly in Shanai, where, it is declared, "babies are being killed because there is nothing to feed them with and children are being sold for a mere song."

Charitable persons are said to be living on the bark and leaves of trees. In addition to Shanai the famine includes districts in Kwangsi, Szechuan, Hunan and Honan.

A magistrate of Yang Hsien in a letter estimates that there are 200,000 famine sufferers, owing to the drought and the devastations of the "Red Spears" a guerilla organization. The situation in Shanai, the magistrate declares, is unprecedented, children being sold openly in the market by parents eager for cash. In Hunan thousands are on the verge of starvation, due to the banditry, communist uprisings, the Red Spears and drought.

Serious Famine In Russia

Mobs In Moscow Are Openly Denouncing The Government

London, Eng.—Soviet Russia is in the throes of a famine which is reaching serious proportions, according to reports from Helmsfors and Riga, received by the Exchange Telegraph Company here.

Mounted police are patrolling Moscow and dispersing near-violent mobs whose leaders openly denounce the government, the Helmsfors report stated.

Foreign legations in Moscow are perturbed over the seriousness of the situation, although some, it is said, are disposed to welcome it because it affords them a legitimate reason for leaving.

In Leningrad similar scenes were enacted, according to the Riga report.

There 750 women and children, after waiting in a bread line all night, were given apples. Angered, they used the apples to bombard the windows of food stores and threatened to lynch the food distributors. A large number were arrested and later released.

Brilliant Meteoric Display Predicted

Shooting Stars Will Be Seen From November 10 To 17

Montreal.—Meteoric displays of striking brightness are predicted to occur for a period lasting from Nov. 10 to 17 inclusive, according to an announcement from Harvard College University, received at McGill, by Prof. A. Vibert Douglas, lecturer in physics and secretary of the Montreal centre of the Royal Astronomical Society of Canada.

These displays, commonly known as shooting stars, will be seen in the northern sky south of the constellation of the Great Bear, better known as the Dipper. The shooting stars will be best observed after midnight, until four o'clock in the morning, and will be seen as bright flashes across the sky.

Remain In Canada

5,000 British Harvesters Still Remaining In Canada

Ottawa.—With harvesting operations completed in the west and with 5,000 British harvesters still remaining in Canada, it is probable that the majority will become permanently established, department of immigration officials stated today. Reports from steamship companies to the department indicate that approximately 3,500 have returned to the British Isles.

From the fact that very few of the harvesters have applied at government employment bureaus, officials of the labor department believe that in the majority of cases they have found permanent work on western farms.

Receives Prize For Research

London, Eng.—F. C. Banting, in receiving the Cameron prize for research at Edinburgh University, told how he discovered insulin. He was in London, Ont., when he read an article which so affected him he could not sleep that night and at two o'clock in the morning he was able to crystallize his ideas which led to his successful experiments.

Spanish Royalty In London

London, Eng.—Queen Victoria of Spain, and her daughters, the Infantas Beatriz and Maria Christina, arrived here and were met at Victoria station by the King and Queen. The royal party will be the guests of Queen Victoria's mother, the Princess Beatrice, widow of Prince Henry of Battenberg.

Alberta Sheep Breeders

Officers Are Elected At Annual Meeting Held In Calgary

Calgary.—Officers elected at the annual meeting of the Alberta Sheep Breeders' Association, held in Calgary, were:

President, John Wilson; vice-president, William Hudson, of Kalmey; second vice-president, Alex. S. McDougall, champion; directors, W. L. Carlyle, Calgary; M. McK. Andrews, Dewinton; John Ramsey, Simons Valley; Richard Knights, Calgary; John Wilson, Jr., Innisfail; E. J. Reid, Cremona; A. M. Olson, Aldridge; R. Hogarth, Cochrane. Peter Maasie, Hignapore, and B. H. A. McDonald, Champion.

Meetings of the directors of the Alberta Horse Breeders' Association and the Alberta Cattle Breeders' Association were also held.

GRAF ZEPPELIN LANDS SAFELY IN HOME PORT

Friedrichshafen, Germany.—Completing the first round-trip commercial trans-Atlantic flight, the Graf Zeppelin landed at the aerodrome here with passengers and mail from America.

The airship, coming from Lakehurst, N.J., made the fastest crossing of the Atlantic by a lighter-than-air machine, covering a distance of 4,003 miles.

Since leaving Friedrichshafen on the morning of October 11, the Graf Zeppelin had flown approximately 10,000 miles. Going by the southern route on the westward flight, she flew 8,000 miles in 111 hours and 38 minutes.

The Graf Zeppelin arrived over her home port just 63 hours and 56 minutes from the start of her flight.

The airship thus established a new record for eastward flight by a dirigible R-34, in 1918, made the only previous eastward flight from Roosevelt Field to England in 75 hours.

It was revealed that the Zeppelin encountered heavy storms while flying over central France forcing Dr. Eckener to alter his course considerably, missing Paris. The speed also was reduced to less than 50 miles an hour.

With the approach of the dirigible the population of the town, swelled many times its normal size, was aroused by volleys of saluting shots. The people rushed pell-mell to the aerodrome, where the crews of the Zeppelin works were already assembled at the hangar. It was raining but there was no wind.

The airship, after the glowing cheering thousands a brief glimpse of her great form, rapidly passed out of sight and then reappeared a little later over Lake Constance. Throughout the town the church bells were ringing frantically and a cannonade of saluting shots was being fired constantly. Numerous searchlights played upon the silvery sides of the dirigible as it passed over the town.

A CASTLE IN IRELAND

Princess Mary and Lord Lascelles are shown above at the doorway of their Portunna castle, in Ireland, where they were recorded a royal wedding some upon their recent visit. Shortly before their arrival the stables of the castle were set afire, apparently by a fanatic, but Lord Lascelles requested that no punishment be meted out to the culprit.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

Dr. Henry Marshall Tory, president of the national research council of Canada, who forecasts that at a gathering of bacteriologists in Ottawa, in the early winter an important announcement will be made concerning mankind's age-long fight against tuberculosis in animals, one of the deadliest scourges known, and one generally conceded the cause of a great deal of tuberculosis in human beings.

Newfoundland Elections

Latest Returns Show That Government Has Been Defeated

St. John's, Nfld.—The opposition party of Sir Richard Squires overthrew the government of Hon. F. C. Alderdice in the general elections it became known when the results from twenty-nine of the thirty-seven districts had been received.

The election of the opposition candidates in St. John's City West and one opposition member in Burin West was conceded in the latest returns, while two seats in St. John's City East, and in the Burin East, were conceded to the government.

The opposition party has now secured twenty-three of a total of forty seats and nine government supporters have been returned.

Both Sir Richard Squires and Hon. F. C. Alderdice were elected. Sir Richard ran in Humber while Premier Alderdice contested St. John's City East.

Contractors Supply Stilts For Workmen

Innovation Of Toronto Firm To Eliminate Costly Scaffolding

Toronto.—As an innovation in the building trade, a firm of Toronto contractors provided six-foot stilts for their workmen. The plan was to do away with costly scaffolding.

Surprised and indignant at the plan, two workmen refused to do the stilt and reported to officials of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners that they lost their job as a result.

William Varley, secretary of the Building Trades Council, is investigating to discover whether the use of stilts would be a contravention of city or provincial statutes.

Saskatchewan Leads

In Grain Shipments

Peak Of Movement Passed In First Three Months Of Crop Year

Winnipeg.—"Fully 65 per cent. of crop has been marketed since estimates have run around $30,000,000 bushels, and the railways have received 304 million bushels to date," is the report of J. G. Sutherland, superintendent of transportation for the Canadian Pacific.

Saskatchewan is in the lead with 88,376,183 bushels all grains, 53,192,560 of which are wheat.

Manitoba has 35,144,225 bushels of all grains, including 19,530,015 bushels of wheat.

Alberta's marketings to date are 56,958,206 bushels all grains, 33,192,560 of which are wheat.

With such figures as proof, Mr. Sutherland holds the opinion that the peak of the movement has been passed in these first three months of the crop year.

Stricken With Bovine Disease

Trouble Common In Cattle No Attacks Human Beings

Chatham, Ont.—That a Dover Township man had been infected with bacillus abortus, a disease common in cattle but previously unknown to human beings, was made known at a meeting of the Kent County Medical Association here.

The case was discovered by Dr. James Moriarty, of this city. His patient was a young man of 23, who went to bed previously untroubled. He had all the symptoms of typhoid fever, but various blood tests were negative.

During September and the early part of October, the man's temperature varied from 99 to 108. He grew emaciated and suffered loss of appetite, headaches, pains in the joints and frequent nose-bleeds. Finally a blood test revealed the disease.

WILL GIVE AID TO SETTLERS FROM THE BRITISH ISLES

Ottawa.—Important announcements in regard to an increase in British assisted immigration are almost certain to follow the tour of Hon. Robert Forke, Minister of Immigration, through the western provinces.

Mr. Forke has just returned and in the course of this trip interviewed the Premiers of Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia, in their respective capitals. He went thoroughly into the various policies now being advanced by his department singly and in co-operation with the British Government, and wherever possible, invited their active assistance.

The kind of assistance which the provinces may give is various. They may assist the Federal department in checking up the bona fides of persons within their boundaries who apply to Ottawa for aid in bringing their families out from Britain, or they may enter actively into a scheme of settlement and bear a part of the financial burden.

Mr. Forke had little to say of his trip, except that all the Premiers had been much interested in immigration problems and had promised to give the most careful consideration to the many suggestions which he had made.

There is ample time for such consideration since all the settlement work is done in the spring and early summer months, and, provided the Federal Department knows now much assistance it may expect from a province by the new year, the task of arranging for the movement of the settlers can be performed.

It would appear that the provinces were more interested in boy settlement than in the policies for older persons, and it is in this field that important announcements may be made.

Mr. Forke, it is understood, put forward a proposal whereby all boys brought out and placed on provincial training farms should be assisted to start up as farmers, provided they could save $500 out of their earnings. At this event the British and Canadian governments would put up $2,250, and would ask the provinces to advance $250 which, coupled with the boys' savings, would make a fund of $3,000 which is considered to be ample to begin farming.

It is probable that the response of the provinces will be enthusiastic and that a very big movement of boys will be inaugurated next year.

BRITISH LABOR MAKES GAINS IN CIVIC ELECTIONS

London, Eng.—Labor leaders are elated over gains made in the municipal elections in the cities and towns throughout England. Incomplete returns indicate that Labor candidates have made a net gain of 101 seats on municipal councils outside of London while their principal opponents registered a loss of 71, and independents a loss of 31.

Results of the elections created exceptional interest this year, some leaders professing to believe that the vote would indicate in some degree what could be expected at the general elections throughout the country next year.

For labor, partial returns indicate were not largely at the expense of Conservatives. At Twickenham the Labor party gained three seats from Conservatives. Twickenham is the parliamentary constituency of Right Hon. William Joynson-Hicks, home secretary.

A feature of the elections in London was the candidature of 450 women as compared with 343 who stood for office in 1925.

The 1925 elections resulted in the return of 140 of the women candidates. While returns from the elections were far from complete it is known that a number of the women headed the polls in their districts. Seven women have been elected to the municipal council of the borough of Poplar. The 21-year-old daughter of the mayor of Fulham was elected.

Unemployed men ran for office as a number of the boroughs and this type of candidate fared worst at Southwark and Shoreditch. Three Communist candidates at Deptford were badly beaten. The mayor of Bermondsey was defeated in his own division.

Armistice Day Letters

Two Million Letters Sent To America From France

La Havre, France.—Two million letters, the largest mailing ever sent from France, have started to America on the French steamer Rochambeau. They are timed for delivery to American women about Armistice Day. These letters, although advertising matter, have been turned to propaganda uses. They have been addressed by hand by French war widows and are sealed. The idea is that American women getting a letter from France on Armistice Day will think of the country where many sent their sons or husbands to war.

Held Lucky Ticket

Quebec Bank Clerk Wins $35,000 On Handicap

Quebec.—Fred G. Moore, 18, a clerk in the employ of the Imperial Bank here, won the first prize of the Army and Navy Veterans' pool on the Cambridgehire Handicap. His prize will amount to about $35,000. He drew Palais Royal II, winner of the race. Fred Graham, Pontypool, Ont., who drew Baytown in the pool, will receive about $11,600 as second prize. E. A. McLatchey, New Glasgow, N.S., holds the ticket on Insight II, placing third. McLatchey will get $-900, the amount of the third prize.

Receives Death Sentence

William Hugh Megill To Be Hanged For The Murder Of Anna Goff

Shawnau, Sask.—William Hugh Megill will be hanged on February 1 for the murder of Anna Goff. A King's Bench court jury found Megill guilty of slaying the 40-year-old orphan girl. The crime took place last June, in the Eastend District where Megill worked as a farm hand. No hope of mercy for the condemned man was held out by Mr. Justice H. V. Bigelow.

Militia Officers Committed

Hamilton, Ont.—Three officers of the Third Canadian Machine Gun Battalion, one of whom is alleged to have drawn his sword on a police officer, were committed for trial by Magistrate Jelfs, on charges of assaulting two police officers who arrested them at the Third Club.

Heavy Mail By Zeppelin

Washington.—The Graf Zeppelin carried 101,683 pieces of mail back to Germany, for which the German postal administration will be credited with $76,713 by the United States postal service. The mail, weighing about one ton, consisted of 49,748 letters and 61,936 postcards.

AN AUDITORIUM NEEDED

Plans should be made with a view to building a town hall and providing an auditorium in keeping with the requirements of the town. At present there is no place available to house a fair-sized gathering, with the result that nothing worth-while can be staged in the way of public gatherings.

Instead of spending money piecemeal on nothing of a substantial or ornamental nature, would it not be the better policy to take a longer range view and plan something worthwhile? In the winter time there is not a hall of any size available. This has disadvantages in many ways, and brings home the fact that many respects we are not beyond the hamlet stage.

A substantial building of fire-proof construction to house the town offices and provide accommodation for council meetings, besides the scores of other purposes which it would undoubtedly be used for, is something badly needed. There is too much self-contentment to permit of progress, and the attitude of letting tomorrow take care of itself as long as we are alright to-day means stagnation in civic and business affairs. In fact in most businesses it spells disaster.

THE TOWN HOG

You'll find him—about ten on every fairly thickly settled street—he comes to town just to eat and sleep and shake off community responsibility. He expects the town to have police patrol down his way so that he won't get knocked on the head some dark night or his place broken into—and he kicks like a steer if the ash man misses a day collecting his rubbish—yes, he'll give the town paper a ring the very next morning and ask why in the name of Moses householders can't get service, and won't the editor have a bang at the authorities very next issue and stir things up.

This guy "never has time to read a paper," just as if that was any excuse for not subscribing to the one institution on the job week in and week out protecting his interests, reporting town happenings, exposing everything detrimental to community welfare and plugging away every week to advance town values and property owners' rights. "I am seldom around town anyway," he says, "and don't know anybody and have no interest in town affairs."

You meet this hog, as stated, about ten on every fairly thickly settled street. He's in town to wring all the benefits he can out of it and give nothing back that isn't forced out of him by the tax collector. He was never known to thank a carrier, say good morning to a cop, give a copper to any charity or a friendly look even to a stray dog—a hog he was born, a hog he lives and he will die a hog's death.—Ex.

When it comes to keeping the church on the map in the smaller centres, and even in the larger places, credit must be given to the ladies. Who arranges the Thanksgiving supper, and various other functions of a like nature during the year to help raise revenue to carry on? Why, the ladies! The way they work should put to shame many men, who though they profess to belong to this or that church, are content to let the "missus and the kids" go to church, while they do not care whether the church sinks or swims. In the closing scenes of the life of Jesus Christ women ministered to him in His sufferings, and it seems that through the centuries it has ever been women who have been a bulwark of the church. And yet until quite recent times the women were refused the right to vote in church affairs.

Restored to Health by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Mitchell, Ont.—"I had little twin babies and for quite a while after I was so weak I could not do any work because of pains all the way up my legs at the back. I also had headaches and got very little sleep. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and soon I was able to get up and do my work. ## Light Beam Produces Music

Expert Could Stop Sound By Blocking Light With His Hand
A narrow beam of light cast about an assembly room in the Hotel Biltmore, at Atlanta, Georgia, was changed into music and held under perfect control at the will of John Bellamy Taylor, consulting engineer of the General Electric Company at Schenectady, N.Y.

The demonstration, given before the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, was made possible through a complicated apparatus by which electrical impulse is controlled by the beam of light, and represented what Mr. Taylor called "narrow castings". The equipment used in the demonstration is known as a photo-phone, built on old principles, Mr. Taylor said, but utilizing the perfected photo-electric tube, electric pick-up and newly developed amplifiers and sound reproducers.

An ordinary photograph with an intricate electrical attachment was used in producing the music. The electrical energy was sent over a light beam in transforming and reproducing elements mounted on a tripod across the room, and music and sound was the result. When Mr. Taylor would hold up his hand in the path of light the music would stop, and as he allowed the light to filter through his fingers the music increased in volume.

THOUSANDS OF MOTHERS USE NO OTHER MEDICINE

Baby's Own Tablets Are the Ideal Remedy For Babies and Young Children

Canadian mothers are noted for the care they give their little ones—the health of the baby is most jealously guarded and the mother is always on the lookout for a remedy which is efficient and at the same time absolutely safe. Thousands of mothers have found such a remedy in Baby's Own Tablets and many of them use nothing else for the ailments of their little ones. Among them is Mrs. Howard King, of Truro, N.S., who says: "I can strongly recommend Baby's Own Tablets to mothers of young children as I know of nothing to equal them for little ones."

Another Story About Ants

Psychologist Tells How They Extinguish Fire With Formic Acid

Speaking of flea circuses, here is a story about ants who act as firemen supported by no less an authority than the Journal de Psychologie, edited by Dr. Pierre Janet, internationally known psychologist, of Paris. Marguerite Combes, an entomologist of note, introduced a lighted candle into an ant-hill in the forest of Fontainebleau not far from Paris. A hill of brown ants known as "formic rufa." The ants scurried about a bit and then proceeded to extinguish the flame by squirting formic acid upon it.

These ants are definitely of a higher order than other species inhabiting the forest. In other hills, the ants either became panic stricken or did try to bite the flame. Where they had the intelligence to try to extinguish the fire by acid, they lacked the ability to direct the stream effectively.

Explanations and Comments

A Call To Consecration For Service verses 1 and 2.—The meaning of these two long verses has been aptly expressed in these brief words: In view of all that God has done for us, we should henceforth live for him. The One Volume Commentary paraphrases the verses thus: God's redeeming love should be answered by the true sacrifice and spiritual, ritual service of a life of purity and self-denial and work for God. Do not follow the fashion and customs of the worldly society around you, but let your way of thinking be changed by the Holy Spirit that you look for and recognize God's will and love to do it.

"I present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God." No maimed or crippled thing might be offered to God by the Jewish law. If we would devote ourselves to God, we must see to it that we have no unimpaired devotion. It is not a negative thing; it is a very positive thing. Even our Lord said in His high-priestly prayer: "For their sakes I consecrate myself." Self-consecration is the most effective way in which we can serve God in our generation. That is the way in which the torch has been handed down by a long succession of runners since the Gospel of Christ came into the world. Ask yourselves how you have been helped by others. You will find, I think, that the occasions have been most trivial, that the words spoken and the things done have been slight and unimpaired. They have been slighted upon the person's character, peeps into the inner life of whose mind is kept in perfect peace because it rests on God; of one who sees God because his heart is pure, whose heart is free from self-interest, the shame of the contrast, the longing to be like such a one, that sends a man to his knees as soon as he is alone. Sometimes when such a man or woman dies we learn for the first time, not without surprise, that he or she was so full of many. Such persons have laid up a rich store of gratitude for being what God has helped them to be."

Mount Robson

The summit of Robson pass is a broad gravel flat extending between Adolphus Lake on the Alberta side and Berg Lake in British Columbia, the two lakes lying about a mile apart. Its enormous mass (altitude, 12,972 feet), towers 7,532 feet above the summit of the pass at such close range as to literally overshadow it.

Everyone Should Have Vacation

All Work and No Play Not Good For People

The city dweller has been sold pretty thoroughly on the idea of a year-long vacation. It may be to the shore, to the mountains, to the lake or to the farm—but it is a vacation that puts new blood into his veins and brings the tint of roses to the cheeks of wife and children.

Those who dwell in the great open spaces seldom find time for a vacation. For, to some extent, makes the man of the home forget his loss, and unfortunately it makes him also lose sight of that loss of longing that comes over the face of his better-half as she reads the lures of vacation lands and sees more fortunate friends and neighbors climbing into the family car for a week or ten days "on the road."

Each man owes to himself and to his family to take a vacation. Death comes in due time, and a forced vacation is taken—often many years before it would be necessary were a little play mixed with each year's work.

We can't take our money into the tomb. We can't get all life holds for us by work alone. Now that the crops are in, take a vacation. Go anywhere. Stay two weeks, ten days, one week, or at least for a few days. Use the train, the gleamer or the family car. But do something that will be a change and that will bring smiles to both old and young faces that seem to have forgotten how to smile. Vacation days pass quickly, but vacation remembrances live for an entire year. Take a vacation.—Richard B. Bond.

Not Confined To Canadians

All Subjects Of King George May Cross Border To Work

Living in Canada and working in the United States is the privilege of all British subjects, no matter where they are born. So says the supreme court of the United States. The widespread impression that this privilege is limited to Canadian citizens is wrong. The Jay treaty of 1794, on which the decision rests, does not mention Canadians either native-born or foreign-born. It says that "his majesty's subjects" and "citizens of the United States" shall have the right "freely to pass and repass by land or inland navigation into the respective territory and countries of the two parties on the continent to America." This applies to British subjects from Scotland, New Zealand, Honduras and many other quarters as well as Canada.

The little labor marplot, who persuaded immigration headquarters to bar their Canadian neighbors when they dared to work here for a living without asking the permission of a union, have done an unwitting service to the cause of international comity and English-speaking friendship.

When Pain Comes

What many people call indigestion very often means excess acid in the stomach. The stomach nerves have been over-stimulated, and food souring in the stomach. The corrective is an alkali, which neutralizes acids instantly. And the best alkali known to medical science is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. It has remained the standard with physicians in the 50 years since its invention. One spoonful of this harmless, tasteless alkali in water will neutralize instantly many times as much acid, and the symptoms disappear at once. You will never use crude methods when once you learn the efficiency of this. Go get a small bottle to try. Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. Each bottle contains full directions—any druggist.

CHAPTER V.—Continued.

"Can I cook?" repeated Andy. "E asks me can I cook! That's my first name; that's my profession. I've cooked on sailing ships, steamboats, in camps, in the Army, and I did thirty days in Sydney jail, and blame me if they didn't make me 'bad cook. I was so good they wanted me to stay."

"You're hired, Andy," said Douglas, decisively. "But isn't it going to be pretty tough to quit the boxing ring, and go to work?"

"Been as you've asked me I'll say that it's a blinker's sight better than quittin' it for tiddle-ty-winks!" Douglas came to his feet. "I want you to meet Dad, Donald, and we'll find out when we are to start."

Andy patted his stomach contentedly. "Well, with this 'ere champagne under me, I think I'll start in 'ere and have a drink and a fight in every bar from 'ere to Cordova Street. About meetin' you Donald, he added scratching his head reflectively, "the way I feel right now I think by tomorrow morning you'll find me in the brand-chamber of the Vancouver Hotel." Saying which, with straightened shoulders, his head set at a characteristic angle, he swaggered down the street and with a wave of his hand disappeared within the swinging doors of the first saloon. In his present mood Andy envied no millionaire.

"You'll like Dad," said Douglas, as they ran up the steps of the big office building. "He's rather severe looking and pretty straight-laced, but the face he wears in the office isn't the face he wears at home." He finished with a laugh.

Robert Rennie was the sole owner of the Rennie Construction and Logging Company, one of the largest organizations of its kind on the Coast. He now rose from his chair and came around the desk, all the while studying Donald's face, which bore unmistakable traces of the afternoon's fight.

"Dad, this is Donald McLean, whom I told you about last night. I don't want to take up much of your time; just wanted you to meet Donald and find out when we can start on the trip to the mountains."

"Now that Gillis is here to go with you, you can go any time; the sooner, the better, as we expect to have the railroad to the summit in a few weeks," responded his father, his eyes still on Donald.

"Thanks, Dad," said Douglas. "We can wait tomorrow and leave the next day."

"How can he leave his business so long?"

"He's not actively engaged in business just at present," explained Douglas lightly.

"You might ask him out to dinner tonight. I am having a few friends in for the evening."

"You bet I will."

Donald accepted Janet's invitation with alacrity, living within four walls of a room and eating in restaurants had long since palled on his taste.

"Formal or informal?" he asked.

Douglas made a deprecatory gesture. "Formal, very formal; that one of our public-spirited citizens suggested the name 'Lions' Gate.'"

"Oh, Dad, that would be lovely!" exclaimed Janet, her eyes shining.

"The 'Lions' Gate, with the two watchful Lions looking down on all who enter. The name is most fitting."

"Yes," concurred Douglas, "Canada being one of the Lion's whelps, would more appropriate name than 'Lions' Gate,' the western gateway to the British Empire?"

The Greater was wonderfully kind to us in His allotment of mountains," said Janet's father; "mountains that are not only valuable for their scenic beauty, but for their mineral-filled rocks and forest-clad sides. Our bays, inlets and streams are filled with fish, and the climate is so ideal in comfort and congenial surroundings the year round."

"Here we have the last of the Great West," continued Mr. Rennie. "With nearly four hundred thousand miles of territory, a coast line several thousand miles in length, our population for the entire Province is less than one of the Coast cities to the south of us. Here in this vast untouched hinterland, swinging his arm to the north and east, lies a potential wealth that will support millions, a wealth that is awaiting the magic touch of capital and settlers—capital to provide railways; farmers to till the rich valley; miners to unlock the vast hoards of gold and copper; and loggers to fell the virgin forests. Some day—some day when the forest has been cleared, all this will come to pass, and young folks will see a railroad from Vancouver, to the Behring Sea. The speaker's face was flushed and his eyes were glowing.

"Who knows," he finished dreamily, "but what the railroad I am building will be a link in the Alaskan road of the future."

"Here is a family," thought Donald, "all native born, who have a deep and abiding faith in the destiny of the land of their birth."

Addressing Mr. Rennie, he said: "If the love that you have for this Province is typical of the average citizen, I see no need to fear for the future of your country."

At this crucial moment Robert Rennie came to his assistance. "I would like Mr. McLean to witness a sunset from our roof," he said as he rose from the table. "Let us have our coffee served there. The light will be gone if we wait longer."

As they ascended the stairs Donald gave his host a grateful look, which Mr. Rennie returned understandingly. That moment cemented an instant friendship in Donald's heart for this broad-minded Western millionaire.

From the eminence of the tiny roof garden the City, allied with streets, lay at their feet. To the north the mountains were invested with a mystic blue haze, through which towered the snow-capped peaks. To the west lay the curving white sands of English Bay, and beyond, in the clear air of the long British Columbia twilight, they could see the strong mountainous profile of Vancouver Island.

"The topography of our City," explained Robert Rennie, "lying between Burrard Inlet and False Creek, is very much like that of New York on Manhattan Island. The Narrows are deep enough for the largest ship afloat, and the inlet—a veritable island, and sea—has unlimited room for docks."

"The name 'Narrows' seems a feeble word for such a magnificent spot," observed Donald.

"Quite true," admitted Robert Rennie. "It is one of our public-spirited citizens suggested the name 'Lions' Gate.'"

"Oh, Dad, that would be lovely!" exclaimed Janet, her eyes shining.

"The 'Lions' Gate, with the two watchful Lions looking down on all who enter. The name is most fitting."

British Industries Fair

Increasing Interest Is Evidenced In Exhibit To Be Held In London and Birmingham

The British Government announces that the fifteenth British Industries Fair will be held simultaneously in London and Birmingham, from the 18th February to the 1st March, 1920, inclusive.

The ever increasing growth of the Fair has necessitated the acquisition of further buildings at the White City to accommodate the immense and varied display of exhibits. At Birmingham new buildings of lasting strength have been constructed to meet the insistent demands for space. In this section alone over 400,000 square feet of space is available for the display of manufactured products.

In the fifteen years of its existence the Fair has developed to such an extent that it is now classed as one of the great trade fairs of the world. At the White City the main lions shown include toys and games, leather and leather goods, pottery and glassware, wireless apparatus and accessories, clothing and textiles, food-stuffs, scientific, photographic and optical instruments, jewellery, chemicals and druggists sundries, fancy goods and sports goods.

The Birmingham exhibit comprises hardware lines of all kinds, household appliances, electrical goods and machinery, including such varieties as concrete mixers, elevators and trucks, weighing machines, heavy battery discharge testers, forges and blowers and many other types of industrial machinery.

In order to facilitate the rapid transaction of practical business the most thorough and modern system of organization has been adopted. In London the general public will be excluded from admission to the Fair during business hours. A special club for the sole use of buyers will offer many comforts and amenities and the free service of a corps of interpreters will render business relations easier between exhibitor and buyer.

Full particulars relating to the Fair can be obtained from the British Trade Commissioner, 705 Royal Bank Building, Winnipeg, who will be glad to issue invitations on behalf of the British Government to business men who contemplate making the trip.

THE SALIVA

You will recall how you came in hungry and saw mother's cooking on the table, so tempting. And you said, "It makes my mouth water."

Now, as a matter of fact, it probably did, for the mere sight or smell of savory food is sufficient to stimulate the salivary glands to function.

The role played by the saliva among the defensive agencies in the body is a very important one. We have, first, the mechanical cleansing of the teeth and mouth structures by the saliva; how important it is, that the food be palatable to stimulate the salivary flow and that mastication be thorough to the same end. For it is a matter of common observation, that in the quickly crumbling away through decay, cases of "dry mouth," the teeth

Now try this: Chew for a few moments, some starchy food, a piece of white bread or potato. Notice presently, how sweet it tastes. What causes this?

In the saliva there is a content known as ptyalin, which has the power of converting starch into sugar, which action takes place during the process of mastication, as the first step in the digestion of the starch element. But the ptyalin content performs the still further function of freeing the tooth surfaces of clinging pasty particles by dissolving the starch.

Then, too, you have observed how sticky or ropy is the saliva at times. This is due to still another salivary content, the mucus. The function of this substance is largely the mechanical one of binding the food particles together at the same time as lubricating and making slippery, the surfaces of the teeth and mouth tissues, thus assisting in the act of swallowing.

Lastly, the presence of saliva with its constant renewal, tends to overcome through its neutralizing action the harmful action of fermentation of carbohydrate matter in the mouth. Hence, it is important for this reason, too, that the supply be liberal.

Therefore, it is worthy of observation here, that great emotions such as anger or fear, or the unpleasant feeling of worry and nervousness, tend to greatly check the normal salivary flow, and for this reason, if for no other, during the process of mastication, the mind should be swept clean of all such disturbing tendencies.

Little Helps For This Week

"I have learned in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content." — Philippians iv. 11.

But those that are contented, However things do fall, Much anguish is prevented. And they soon find from all, They finish all their labors With much felicity; Their joy in trouble savors Of perfect pity.

—Anne Collins.

The fountain of content must spring up in the mind; and she who has so little knowledge of human nature as to seek happiness by changing anything but her own disposition, will waste her life in fruitless efforts, and multiply the griefs which she herself proposes to remove.

—Ben Jonson.

Table Removed From Abbey

After remaining in the Jerusalem Chamber of Westminster Abbey for 50 years, the trestle-table, which had been placed there for the use of the revisers of the Bible, has been removed by the authorities. The work of the revisers was completed in 1881, but the table with its red baize remained until order was recently given.

The British custom of serving 4-o'clock tea in business offices is fast "taking on" in Canada. Many Canadian, as well as British-born, executives now order Red Rose Tea for their office staffs, because it is the same quality as the finest English teas. Sold by all grocers, in bright, clean aluminum.

ASPIRIN

The whole world knows Aspirin as an effective antidote for pain. But it's just as important to know that there is only one genuine Aspirin. The name Bayer is on every tablet, and on the box. If the name Bayer appears, it's genuine; and if it doesn't, it isn't! Headaches are dispelled by Aspirin. So are colds, and the pain that goes with them; even neuralgia, neuritis, and rheumatism promptly relieved. Get Aspirin—at any drugstore—with proven directions.

Physicians prescribe Aspirin;
it does NOT affect the heart

Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) indicating Bayer Manufacture. While it is well known that Aspirin means Bayer Manufacture, to insure the public against imitations, the Tablets will be stamped with their "Bayer Cross" trademark.

About the most detestable kind of a creature is one who will take a newspaper from a delivery boy for a few weeks and then refuse to pay for it. Such trash do not know the meaning of the word decency.

The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal with its wonderful improvements is recognized as the greatest money maker for farmers in Canada, while its magazine section is a gem unrivalled.

G. R. Powell reports that quite a number of orders have been received lately for Orthophonic Victrolas, and that parties desiring same for early delivery or for the Christmas season must make arrangements at once, as it takes some weeks to make delivery.

Hallowe'en passed off very quietly and never has there been so few complaints registered at the town hall the morning after. The younger children had their amusement in disguising themselves and visiting the houses with capacious bags collecting peanuts, apples and the odd dime, while the older folks celebrated the evening with a dance in the Orange hall and the Shamrock hockey girls held a dance in the K. of P. hall.

Two papers in one—The Family Herald and Weekly Star, Montreal—one for the farm, the other for the home, both of superior excellence. One dollar a year covers the subscription, or three years for $2.
